Sorry for the delay, Dustin. I was out sick earlier this week, and I've been watching up on things yesterday and today.

I've attached a few comments on your RFC. I think it's in pretty good shape. I have a few editorial suggestions, but they're fairly minor. Are you going to send this around to the PQC team?

My suggestion: take a look at my comments and do another pass. Then send it out to Lily, Matt, and the PQC team. Give them a few days to look at it, and we can get it up to Jennifer mid next week.
