Hi Dustin,

I started on the reviews and it's going fine so far. I should be able to finish by next Friday – although I do also have some other deadlines next week. I will update you asap if I run into trouble.

Best,
Gorjan

Subject: How are the reviews going?

Hey,

I just wanted to check with everybody and see how the reviews are going. Looking at the master spreadsheet, it looks like Ray has done a lot of his, and that Carl has also started. I've done several that I haven't added yet, because I've been on travel. Everybody else - have you started? Our goal is to have them all done by next Friday. Is that still doable for everybody? Can each of you respond to let me know? Thanks - I know it's a lot of reviews.

Remember - you don't have to check that the submission is correct technically. Just that they met our requirements.

Dustin
