BTW, I liked your talk slides ("The Ship Has Sailed") – I think it gave a great sense of the broad impact of the project, and the photo montage of our team was neat to see. 😊

Thanks for letting me know. That's cool you're giving a talk at a high school.

Hi Dustin –

Ack. ☹ I just noticed that I have an event which overlaps with the PQC meeting on Dec. 12th. I'm give a talk at Gaithersburg High School at 10:30am that day.

I'm sorry about this (it happened because I entered something in my calendar for the wrong week). Anyway, I will still catch the first hour of the meeting at least, and I'll try to get filled in on anything that I miss.

Looking forward the next stage of the project. See you next week!
