Hi Dustin,

Hmm, ok, I'll think about it this weekend, and assign tasks to people. How about we meet at NIST on Wednesday and/or Thursday next week? I should be around. Sorry I am a bit over-stretched right now, it is a combination of QCrypt stuff and my own research projects.

Thanks!

Yi-Kai,

I talked more with Andy, and he really thinks we need to have our draft by April, as we'll have to run it by the lawyers. Have you thought about assignments? Daniel will be here next week, so we could really focus and work on the technical parts. Tuesday afternoon we will likely have a meeting with some visitors (Jintai and Tsuyoshi), but we could have another meeting to work on the evaluation criteria. What do you think?

Dustin
