Ok, I'll come for the first hour. (That last meeting wasn't in my area of expertise but this one might be closer.) See you then!

Carl,

I'd recommend that you come to the first hour, unless you don't want to. A big part of the discussion tomorrow will be on how to define quantum security.

Hi Dustin –

I'm declining this meeting since I think I'm not ready to contribute much at this stage – but let me know if you would still like to have me there, and I can still sit in on the first hour. (I've got a meeting at 10:30am.)
