I kind of feel the same way. Just as an FYI, in 2009, SHA-3 held a Wed-Sat (AM) conference

My initial reaction would be not to do a Saturday morning session. I'm not sure people would like that.

On the other hand, once we try putting together a schedule, we might know how necessary it might be (or not).

Dustin/Lily,

FBC contacted the hotel about the Wednesday afternoon meeting and they do not have meeting space. They do have Saturday morning space. We talked about it before, but didn't want to go further until I checked that it's ok with you. We also need to make sure they can stay under the bankcard limit for the room rental and A/V costs for that day.
