I've gone through it, and it looks good. Thanks for updating things like the date, and the table of contents, etc...

Please review. I'm trying to get it back to the Library by 10:30. They have a meeting from 11-12, and CSRC's admin site is going offline at 1pm. I'm trying to get this out there today (and I've updated the date to January 2019).

Thx
Jim

Hi Dustin-

Please make your final changes, then send the Word file to me. I have to make one last addition (left hand gutter text with the DOI), generate the PDF, and update the PDF properties. I'll then send to you for proofing. Once I get your ok, I'll send it to techpubs and CC you.

Sara/Jim,

As far as I know it's all in the correct format, right? I think I need to delete one comment that I'd left in. Otherwise, can I send the files to techpubs@nist.gov? Thanks for the fast turnaround on this!
