Fantastic—thanks again, Kathryn!

Jim

(Patrick—here are the DOI and URL for NISTIR 8105, which will be posted this evening. Note also that Kathryn Miller is now the point person for techpubs in the Library.)

Hi Jim and Dustin,

Please find the registered DOI and URL for your NISTIR 8105 publication below. The links will not be live until the PDF has been uploaded to the server.

<http://dx.doi.org/10.6028/NIST.IR.8105>

<http://nvlpubs.nist.gov/nistpubs/ir/2016/NIST.IR.8105.pdf>

I plan to upload the PDF to the server around 4:30PM this evening, and I will send another confirmation email at that time.

I'll send a third email tomorrow (4/28) when I've published the 266.

Thanks!

Hi Jim,

I can take care of this for you. I'll send the registered DOI and the full URL to both of you tomorrow. I'll upload the PDF to nvlpubs probably on Wednesday evening, and will publish the NIST-266 on Thursday.

By the way – my name is Kathryn and I started as a member of the Technical Publications team at the beginning of April. Kate is still on the team, too, but I will probably be helping you out more frequently in the future.

Thanks!

Importance: High

Hi Kate-

For NISTIR 8105 (NIKE PubID 920573, approved by WERB on 4/20), Public Affairs has prepared a press release, which they would like to post this Thursday, April 28, between 9-10am.

I'm attaching the Word and PDF files for you. Would it be possible for you to:

- 1) Register the DOI;
- 2) Confirm for us the DOI and the full URL on NVLPUBS where it will be posted;
- 3) Upload the PDF before 9am on Thursday (or at the end of the day on Wednesday, if Thursday morning is not possible);
- 4) Publish the NIST-266 on Thursday, so that it gets pushed out to the NIST Publication Portal on Thursday afternoon.

Is that do-able? Public Affairs just contacted me with their proposed release date/time.

Thanks,

Jim
